Comlux Completion Centre Celebrates Successful Delivery of Third ACJ TwoTwenty from Airbus

Comlux, a global leader in business aviation, proudly announces the successful delivery of the third ACJ TwoTwenty from Airbus to its state-of-the-art Completion Centre in Indianapolis. This achievement marks yet another milestone in Comlux's illustrious history, highlighting the company's expertise in crafting the most sophisticated and technologically advanced aircraft cabins.

This project represents the third collaboration between Comlux and Airbus for the ACJ TwoTwenty , reinforcing the successful partnership between the two industry leaders. The Comlux Completion Centre, renowned for its world-class facilities and skilled workforce, remains at the forefront of innovation in the business aviation sector.

As the exclusive partner of Airbus for the ACJ TwoTwenty cabin, Comlux Completion Center proudly maintains its capability to craft the most sophisticated and technologically advanced aircraft cabins ever envisioned. In close collaboration with Airbus, the resulting ACJ TwoTwenty offers an unparalleled cabin experience featuring cutting-edge technology, positioning it as the most advanced high-end corporate jet available in the market. Notably, the ACJ TwoTwenty provides exceptional value for money, solidifying its status among the elite class of corporate jets.

"After the first delivered ACJ TwoTwenty from our Completion Centre in Indianapolis earlier this year, we are starting the ramp-up in our production to satisfy the customer demand for this fantastic product. We target between 4 and 6 ACJ TwoTwentys in the coming years from Comlux Completion in Indianapolis" says Arnaud Martin, CEO of Comlux 2Twenty Ltd.

Looking ahead, Comlux Completion is excited to continue its collaboration with Airbus, with the fourth ACJ TwoTwenty already in progress and set for delivery in the near future. This upcoming delivery reinforces Comlux's position as a trusted partner in the aviation industry, dedicated to pushing the boundaries of innovation and setting new standards in private jet travel.
