

Comlux appoints new CEO for Comlux Completion

Zurich, September 2023

Comlux has appointed Adam White as Chief Executive Officer of Comlux Completion based in Indianapolis. Adam White will report to the Board of Directors of Comlux group and directly to the Group CEO.

As CEO of Comlux Completion, White will continue to lead the company through a program of development and modernization that was launched few years ago. All of this is intended for the benefit of our clients and offers a promising future to our current and future employees.

Prior to joining Comlux in 2019 as Chief of Technology, Adam White built his career around business aviation, with a focus on Completions. In his 20+ year career, the majority being at General Dynamics companies Gulfstream and Jet Aviation, he has led company transitions and new product development in both the US and Europe. Needless to say, his experience in VIP cabin completion speaks for itself.

Richard Gaona, CEO of Comlux group said: “Adam having lived in Switzerland and working with both the US and Europe makes him the ideal candidate to bring Comlux and Comlux Group to another level just in time for the upcoming opening of our new facility in Dubai”.

Adam White said “This is such a dynamic time with unprecedented growth at Comlux, I am honored to accept this role with the full trust and support of our Shareholders. Having lived and travelled around the world developing new methods to increase productivity, reduce cost, and ultimately drive customer satisfaction it feels as though my career has trained me for this specific opportunity. Through my time at Comlux I have had the ability to lay the groundwork with the fully dedicated team of professionals to ensure our continued growth. Together we are poised to redefine the Comlux space in the VVIP and Business Jet markets.”

Comlux is a leader in business aviation, transaction and completion services. For over 20 years, the company has engineered luxury for VIP customers seeking personal and professional management of their private aviation needs, including aircraft sales and acquisitions, aircraft operations and charter management, cabin interiors, maintenance and upgrades. Headquartered in Switzerland with a global presence around the world, Comlux delivers World-class, Swiss-made business aviation services.
